Surname, first name/Company name:

Address/Registered office:

A potential conflict of interest may arise, in particular, from:

- the appointment as proxy of: (i) GBL or one of its subsidiaries; (ii) a member of the Board of Directors of GBL; (iii) an employee or the Statutory Auditor of GBL; (iv) a relative of a natural person who is one of the persons referred to in (i) through (iii) or of a spouse or legal cohabitant of such a person or of the relative of such a person;
- the failure to appoint a proxy, in which case GBL will appoint a member of its Board of Directors or one of its employees as proxy.

In the event of potential conflict of interest, the following rules shall apply:

1. “the proxy must divulge the precise details that are relevant in order to enable the shareholder to assess the risk that the proxy may pursue an interest other than that of the shareholder” (Article 547bis, §4, 1° of the Companies Code). In this regard, a Director will be inclined, without express instructions from the principal, to vote systematically in favour of the proposed resolutions drawn up by the Board of Directors. The same is true of an employee who may find himself or herself in a relationship of subordination with GBL.
2. “the proxy is authorised to exercise the right to vote on behalf of the shareholder only on condition that he/she has specific voting instructions for each item on the agenda” (Article 547bis, §4, 2° of the Companies Code). GBL therefore asks that you give specific instructions by ticking a box for each item on the agenda. In the absence of specific voting instruction for a given agenda item on this form, the shareholder will be assumed to have given the proxy specific instructions to vote in favour of that item.
